

MASS TRI COUNTY BOWLING ASSOCIATION HALL OF FAME FOR

Jack Mailhot: Hall of Fame Candidate for Meritorious Service

Jack Mailhot has been a dedicated and influential figure within the bowling community, contributing significantly to the Mass Tri-County Bowling Association (MTCBA) and the sport of bowling over several decades. His leadership roles and tireless service to the sport make him a standout candidate for the Hall of Fame in the Meritorious Service category.

Leadership and Service Roles

- Member of MTCBA for 36 years, showcasing his long-term commitment to the organization and the sport.
- Served as Vice President of the MTCBA for a total of 8 years (1983-1986 and 1994-1999), during which he worked diligently to implement programs and initiatives that furthered the growth of bowling in the region.
- Past President of the MTCBA (1999-2002), providing strong leadership and overseeing the organization's activities during a crucial period.
- League President for 31 years, demonstrating his ability to manage and promote league play, ensuring the smooth operation of local bowling leagues and fostering community spirit.
- League Secretary, where Jack's organizational skills and dedication were evident as he maintained the administrative side of league operations.

National and ABC Involvement

- Jack was also a delegate at the ABC Convention for 10 years, representing the interests of the MTCBA and local bowlers on a national stage.
- His service on the National Awards Committee for 4 years highlights his commitment to recognizing and honoring the achievements of bowlers, further enriching the sport's culture.
- A long-standing ABC member, Jack has worked tirelessly to uphold the values and standards of the sport, both locally and nationally.

Conclusion

Jack Mailhot's decades of service, leadership roles within the MTCBA, and involvement at both the local and national levels make him a deserving candidate for the MTCBA Hall of Fame for Meritorious Service. His unwavering commitment to the sport of bowling and the community he served has left a lasting legacy. Jack's outstanding leadership, dedication, and significant contributions to bowling have earned him this prestigious recognition.